Associate Degrees and Other Formal Awards Below the Baccalaureate National Center for Education Statistics, Building Beloved Communities Hildi Hendrickson, 2021-08-01 Building Beloved Communities traces the life of Rev. Dr. Paul Smith (b. 1935), an iconoclastic black minister who has channeled his civil rights work into establishing multi-racial churches in four cities—Buffalo, NY; Atlanta, GA; St. Louis, MO; Brooklyn, NY—over a six-decade career. Following the lead of his mentor, Dr. Howard Thurman (who was also a key influence on Martin Luther King Jr.), Smith has concentrated on building thriving multicultural congregations to create the sorts of communities envisioned by King and others. In 1979, he became the first black minister of all-white Hillside Presbyterian Church in Decatur, Georgia, making him a unique leader among the 4,000 Presbyterian congregations in the United States. In 1986, he was elected the first African American pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn Heights, New York. Throughout his ministry in various churches, he has consciously moved his congregations toward being explicitly multi-cultural and multi-racial, as well as more politically active and welcoming of LGBTQ communities. Hendrickson examines his pastoral care and his increased work with corporations, colleges, and charitable foundations. Building Beloved Communities details the complicated life of a man dedicated to serving as a bridge between Christianity, community activism, public health institutions, and the business world. Based on archival research, historical analysis, and original interviews with Smith and his colleagues, Hildi Hendrickson offers a critical biography of the preacher and his work from the 1960s to the present.

Georgetown University Paul R. O'Neill,Bennie L. Smith,2020-04-06 Georgetown University is a new book by alumni Paul O'Neill (C'86) and Bennie Smith (C'86). The book includes 200 images from Georgetown University's archives along with captions that tell the story of the university's first 200 years. Georgetown University, the oldest Catholic university in America, was founded in 1789 by Archbishop John Carroll, SJ, as an academy for boys that was open to Students of Every Religious Profession and every Class of Citizens. Carroll established the school on a hilltop overlooking the Potomac River, delightfully situated as Charles Dickens would observe several decades later. Georgetown welcomed its first student, William Gaston, in 1791 and was chartered by Congress in 1815, but by the time of the Civil War, when Federal troops occupied the campus, the school was on the brink of collapse. It was not until the presidency of Patrick F. Healy, SJ, in 1873 that Georgetown would recover and be set on a course to become a university, linking Georgetown College with professional schools of medicine and law. The early 20th century was marked by the founding of the schools of dentistry, nursing, foreign service, languages and linguistics, and business. Now among the top universities in America, Georgetown is continuously reinvigorated by teaching and scholarship dedicated to serving the nation and the world.

Great Camps of the Adirondacks Harvey H. Kaiser,2003-07 The author does a thorough job in explaining the beginnings of rustic architecture and why it has a permanent place in the culture. The mix of social background and the history of the early Adirondack camps provides a designers guidebook.

Management Ratios 1 for Colleges & Universities W. John Minter,1986 Ratios that enable colleges and universities to select other institutions for comparison are presented. The ratios and underlying data also enable colleges to rank order institutions and to calculate means, quartiles, and ranges for these groups. The data are based on FY 1983 U.S. Department of Education Statistics. The ratios summarize the relationship between important categories of transactions: revenue sources related to total expenditures, expenditures for major operating functions related to total revenues, and full-time equivalent categories. The ratios are provided by state for private and public institutions. The schools are coded according to the following institutional identifying characteristics: Department of Education Institution Classification Codes, Department of Education Level of Offering Codes, Higher Education Directory Level of Offering Codes, academic calendar codes, control or affiliation codes, city size codes, and land grant codes. Additional sections cover: revenue contribution ratios; expenditure demand ratios; plant, endowment assets, and plant debt; and opening fall enrollment ratios. Appended are the Financial Statistics Survey Form and the Fall Enrollment Survey Form. Instructions are provided for obtaining and using special information management software (two diskettes) that enable an institution to create a statistical database for use with this publication.
