College Scholarships for High School Students (Grades 9-12) Michael Neuwirth,2016-02-09 A college scholarship book tailored for high school students in grades 9-12. Over 1,000 hours of research has been consolidated into a single, well organized and easy to read book. Each scholarship has a straight-to-the-point description with key eligibility and application requirements. The scholarships range from essay and video contests to recognition for academic achievement, community service or participation in extra-curricular activities. There are scholarships based on potential degree or career interest, religious affiliation, nationality or ethnic heritage, state residency and demonstrated financial need. This book includes simple methods for locating obscure scholarships. Every detail was carefully considered in order to eliminate the frustration and reduce the time commitment of searching for scholarships while maximizing success for high school students.

Community College Faculty Scholarship John M. Braxton, 2015-08-28 While teaching occupies the primary role of faculty members in community colleges, the question remains: To what extent are community college faculty members engaged in research and scholarship? This issue focuses on: the types of research and scholarship performed by community college faculty, the forces that foster or impede the engagement of community college faculty members in research and scholarship, specific examples of community college faculty scholarship that demonstrate the value of this work to the institution and to larger society, and policies and practices at the institutional, local, and state level that support engagement in research and scholarship. This is the 171st volume of this Jossey-Bass quarterly report series. Essential to the professional libraries of presidents, vice presidents, deans, and other leaders in today's open-door institutions, New Directions for Community Colleges provides expert guidance in meeting the challenges of their distinctive and expanding educational mission.

Bridging the Gap Suzanne McCray, Dana C. Kuchem, 2019-07-23 Thousands of college students across the country apply each year for nationally and internationally competitive scholarships and grants. Different awards target different interests, career goals, and student qualifications. Advising students on how to choose the right award that will help launch them on their career path requires a nuanced understanding of scholarship opportunities. Bridging the Gap: Perspectives on Nationally Competitive Scholarships provides key information from scholarship foundations and seasoned advice from campus advisors critically important for the faculty and staff who support students applying for these awards. This book will be a great resource for anyone advising students.
